The first part of the solution is to find the roots of the equation $x^2 - 5x + 6 = 0$.
This can be done by factoring the quadratic expression.

$$x^2 - 5x + 6 = (x - 2)(x - 3) = 0$$

The roots are $x = 2$ and $x = 3$.

Therefore, the solution set is $\{2, 3\}$.

The second part of the solution is to find the roots of the equation $x^2 - 7x + 12 = 0$.
This can be done by factoring the quadratic expression.

$$x^2 - 7x + 12 = (x - 3)(x - 4) = 0$$

The roots are $x = 3$ and $x = 4$.

Therefore, the solution set is $\{3, 4\}$.

The third part of the solution is to find the roots of the equation $x^2 - 9x + 14 = 0$.
This can be done by factoring the quadratic expression.

$$x^2 - 9x + 14 = (x - 2)(x - 7) = 0$$

The roots are $x = 2$ and $x = 7$.

Therefore, the solution set is $\{2, 7\}$.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It is essential for the business to have a clear and concise record of all income and expenses. This will help in determining the profit or loss of the business and in preparing the tax return.

The second part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets and liabilities. This will help in determining the net worth of the business and in preparing the balance sheet.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all taxes paid. This will help in determining the tax liability of the business and in preparing the tax return.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all contracts and agreements. This will help in determining the legal obligations of the business and in preparing the legal documents.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all correspondence. This will help in determining the communication history of the business and in preparing the legal documents.

The sixth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial statements. This will help in determining the financial performance of the business and in preparing the financial reports.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all legal documents. This will help in determining the legal status of the business and in preparing the legal documents.

The eighth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all contracts and agreements. This will help in determining the legal obligations of the business and in preparing the legal documents.

The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all correspondence. This will help in determining the communication history of the business and in preparing the legal documents.

The tenth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial statements. This will help in determining the financial performance of the business and in preparing the financial reports.
